

LABO 6221 ENZYMATIC BODYWORK CLEANER

THE PROFESSIONAL RANGE

Enzymatic cleaner that maintains pipes after sewage disposal.
Cleans food processing equipment and warehouses.

DESCRIPTION

LABO 6221 cleans bodywork and all horizontal and vertical surfaces.

It removes dirt in depth. It is antistatic and eliminates static film during washing.

It can be used on all bodywork where a perfect result is required.

It prevents clogging of pipes.

Sewage disposal is non-polluting for humans and the environment, and its discharge into drains is recommended for drain maintenance.

LABO 6221 is an excellent degreaser, decontaminant and depollutant during disposals and for pipes.

LABO 6221 can be used for warehouses, food storage on the floor, or on vertical surfaces and walls.

It can also be used to clean equipment that may come into contact with foodstuffs. Please take care of rinsing after cleaning.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

LABO 6221 is used diluted from 0.4 to 5%.

It can be used by hand (sponge, brush, etc.), in car wash systems, in high-pressure machines (do not exceed 40°) or by spraying.
